

whitewall

CONTEMPORARY ART AND LIFESTYLE MAGAZINE

SUMMER 2021

THE IMPACT ISSUE

FRANK GEHRY - ANDRÉS REISINGER - YVES BÉHAR - INDIA MAHDVI - HUGO McCLOUD - IGNASI MONREAL - SHEPARD FAIREY & MIKE DEAN

NEWS

LAND AND SEA

- 1. The global family-run glassware company LSA greets customers with design-forward vases mouth-blown by artisans, inspired by Brutalist and Eastern Bloc architecture.
- 2. Louis Vuitton's "Objets Nomades" collaboration with the Campana Brothers is welcoming new colorways: raspberry for its Bulbo seat; blue lagoon for its Cocoon chair; and sunrise, green, and aubergine for the Bomboca sofa.
- 3. Roche Bobois's collaborative collection "Earth from Above" translates aerial images from the environmentalist and photographer Yann Arthus-Bertrand for its Spring/Summer 2021 collection.
- 4. Ethimo's latest outdoor configurations and accessories, including the Eivissa pavilions, create an unforgettable dialogue with architecture, nature, and design that celebrates seasons and raises awareness of sustainable design.
- 5. Eden, Heatherwick Studio's latest luxury residential property in Singapore, reimagines tropical living with a sustainable master plan of layered gardens and natural materials.
- 6. Connection: CCY Architects reveals the Colorado-based firm's approach to site-specific design, inspired by natural environments, through 300 color photographs in a hardcover book.
- 7. In Ossining, New York, "At The Luss House: Blum & Poe, Mendes Wood DM, and Object & Thing" (May 7-July 24, 2021) presents contemporary art and design at the significant midcentury modern home designed by the late architect Gerald Luss.

CARMEN D'APOLLONIO DON'T WAKE THE SNAKE JULY 15 - AUGUST 13 2021

FRIEDMAN BENDA
515 W 26TH STREET
NEW YORK NY 10001
FRIEDMANBENDA.COM